

Purpose of this form

Use this form if you would like to register for a My Health Record. Submitting this form will notify the Australian Digital Health Agency, the System Operator under the My Health Records Act 2012, that you would like to register for a My Health Record.

When we refer to 'System Operator' or 'we', this may also include our delegates in the Department of Health, the Chief Executive Medicare and contracted service providers who help carry out our functions.

Registration for a My Health Record is voluntary.

You can register for a My Health Record:

- online at www.myhealthrecord.gov.au or
- by phoning the My Health Record Help line on 1800 723 471 or
- by completing and returning this form to:
My Health Record
GPO Box 9942
Sydney NSW 2000

When to use this form

Use this form if you:

- want to register for a My Health Record
- are 14 years of age or older, and
- have a verified Individual Healthcare Identifier (IHI).

An IHI is used by healthcare providers to improve the security and efficient management of an individual's My Health Record. If you are enrolled in Medicare or the Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA), you will have been allocated a verified IHI.

If you are not listed on a Medicare or DVA card you will need to apply for an IHI before completing this application. For more information on how to apply for an IHI, visit www.servicesaustralia.gov.au/hi or call the Healthcare Identifiers Service at Services Australia on 1300 361 457.

Documents you will need to provide

You must provide certified copies of your identity documents with this application. Information about which documents you will need to prove your identity are set out at the end of this form.

What does 'certified copy' mean?

A 'certified copy' of a document is a photocopy of an original document which has been endorsed by an appropriate person (see page 6) as being a true copy of the original. The certification must state that the appropriate person has sighted the original document and believes the copy to be a true copy of the original document. The person making the endorsing statement must sign the actual copy being submitted as part of your request. This signature cannot be photocopied. The person certifying your copies must include their full name, address, contact phone number and their qualifications on all copies that they certify for you.

Corresponding with you

If we need to contact you in writing, we will use the address recorded against your verified IHI. Your verified IHI address will be your Medicare mailing address held by Services Australia, or your mailing address held by DVA. To update this address, please call Services Australia on 132 011 or DVA on 133 254.

Privacy collection notice

The collection, use and disclosure of personal information in this form is authorised by the My Health Records Act 2012, the Healthcare Identifiers Act 2010 and the Privacy Act 1988.

If the information you provide in this form is incomplete, incorrect or illegible, we may not be able to accurately identify you. This means we may not be able to register you for a My Health Record.

If this is the case, we will attempt to contact you using the contact details you have provided in this form. However, if we are unable to contact you or you do not provide the information we require, then we may not be able to process your request.

Why we collect personal information

We use your personal information in this form for the following purposes:

- to verify your identity
- to check whether a My Health Record already exists for you
- to create your My Health Record
- to link your My Health Record to a myGov account (a secure way to access Australian Government services online), and
- to enable health and other personal information about you to be included in your My Health Record

What personal information is disclosed to register for a My Health Record?

We will use the information in this form and information from Medicare to help verify your identity.

What information is collected once your My Health Record is created?

Once your My Health Record is created, we collect personal information held by Services Australia, which operates Medicare and this information is uploaded to your record.

You can decide if you want this information to be included in your My Health Record when you first use your My Health Record or by changing the access settings.

Medicare information that may be included in your My Health Record:

- details of the last two years (if available) and any future Medicare Benefits Schedule (MBS) claims (including claims that are processed by Services Australia on behalf of DVA)

- details of the last two years (if available) and any future Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme (PBS) claims (including DVA claims under the Repatriation Pharmaceutical Benefits Scheme (RPBS) that are processed by Services Australia)
- organ and/or tissue donation decisions recorded on the Australian Organ Donor Register (AODR)
- vaccines recorded on the Australian Immunisation Register (AIR).

We will also collect personal information when a registered healthcare provider organisation uploads your medical information to your My Health Record.

The personal information may be contained in records such as a shared health summary, a discharge summary, diagnostic imaging or pathology reports, or prescribing and dispensing information. You can ask your registered healthcare provider not to upload records to your My Health Record. Your healthcare provider must comply with your request.

You can control who has access to your records in your My Health Record by setting access controls. If you do not set these access controls, your registered healthcare provider organisations that are involved in your care will be able to view documents in your My Health Record.

Disclosing personal information overseas

My Health Record information is stored in Australia. We will not disclose My Health Record information overseas unless you or your registered healthcare provider organisations access the My Health Record while overseas.

For more information

The My Health Record privacy policy outlines how we manage your health and other personal information. It also explains how you can access and correct personal information or make a privacy complaint. You can access the privacy policy at www.myhealthrecord.gov.au/privacy or by calling 1800 723 471.

Managing your My Health Record

Once you are registered, you will need to have a myGov account to access your My Health Record online. myGov is a secure way to access Australian Government services online. You will link to your My Health Record through myGov.

Once you've registered and linked your My Health Record, you can view and manage the information in your My Health Record online.

Learn more about setting up your My Health Record by visiting our help page www.myhealthrecord.gov.au/help/set-up.
